

I would like to express my concern about resending Indiana's no call law. I use to get up to twelve call from telemarketers a day, usually at any meal time, that has been cut to none a day. This is the best law that has been implemented in a long time. Please think twice about having this law disbanded. Thank You